Timestamp	Speaker	Utterance
02:38:14	OP	911, what is your emergency?
02:38:17	C	(breathing heavily) Hello? Hello, please — there is a man, he is on the ground —
02:38:22	OP	Ma'am, slow down. I can hear you. Where are you?
02:38:26	C	Bourbon Street, in — in the back — the alley behind the bars. He is not moving. There is blood everywhere.
02:38:33	OP	Okay, I'm getting help to you right now. Is he breathing?
02:38:36	C	I — I don't think so. Oh my God. He's face down. I'm not going to touch him.
02:38:42	OP	That's okay, you don't need to touch him. What's the address or the nearest cross street?
02:38:46	C	It's — there is a bar, The Rusty Anchor. The back alley behind it. Bourbon. I — I just came out and he was there.
02:38:54	OP	The Rusty Anchor on Bourbon Street, behind the bar. Got it. EMS and police are on the way. What's your name?
02:38:59	C	(pause) Please — I don't want to — I can't be involved. Please. I'm sorry.
02:39:06	OP	Ma'am, I understand you're scared. Can you stay on the line with me?
02:39:10	C	There were — there were men. Three men. They ran. I saw them run when I — they ran out to Bourbon.
02:39:17	OP	Three men running out? Can you describe what they were wearing? Anything you remember?
02:39:23	C	One had — a red shirt. One was dark, dark sweater or hoodie. The other — light shirt. I don't know. They were wh
02:39:34	OP	Ma'am, please stay with me. The officers will be there in just a moment. Are you in a safe location?
02:39:39	C	I'm going. I'm sorry. Please help him. Please.
02:39:44	OP	Ma'am — ma'am? Hello?
02:39:47	—	(call disconnected by caller)
02:39:48	OP	(to dispatch console) CAD, units en route — confirm 712 Bourbon, alley behind The Rusty Anchor. Possible homic
