The following is an abbreviated, verbatim transcript of selected exchanges. Subject was visibly anxious; counsel intervened at several points. Full transcript on file as Exhibit INT-16-T.

Q: Mr. McCall, your counsel has explained the proffer terms. You understand we're asking you to tell us what happened on the night of October 3 into October 4?

A: Yes. I want to tell you. I haven't slept in a week.

Q: Take your time. Start from the beginning of the evening.

A: Me and Marco met up at the Rusty Anchor around 10. Trent was already there. He came from a delivery he was doing for Phil — Phil Olivier. Trent had two boxes and the bat. He always has the bat. He calls it 'insurance.' I'd seen him bring it before. I never thought it was, like — I thought it was a joke.

Q: How long had you been part of this group?

A: Maybe a year. Trent met me through a contractor we both work with. I do HVAC. Trent started inviting me out. It's a fun bar. There's always girls. It just — it started normal.

Q: Trent had been involved in violence before that you know of?

A: I — yeah. I mean, I'd heard stuff. Marco, I knew Marco got into a thing in 2022, he served like ninety days. Trent talked about, like, 'handling' stuff. The August thing — the tourist from Wisconsin — I wasn't there for that. But Trent and Marco were. Trent told me they 'had a conversation' with the guy. I figured out what that meant later.

Q: Were you involved in the August incident at all?

A: No. I wasn't even in town that weekend. I was at my mom's in Lafayette. You can check. (Counsel: We will be providing documentation.)

Q: Okay. Walk us through October 3 to 4.

A: So we're drinking. Trent starts paying attention to this Black guy at the bar. He's like 'that dude's been here too long. He's writing in his book. He's looking at us.' Marco's like 'who cares.' Trent says 'I think he's a cop.' Then Trent saw him with his phone — the guy had his phone face-up on the bar, just resting there. Trent said 'he's recording us.' He said it like he was sure.

Q: Did you think the man was recording you?

A: I didn't think anything. I was drunk and tired. I figured Trent was being paranoid.

Q: Then what?

A: The Black guy paid out and left out the back. Trent says, real fast, 'we're gonna go talk to him.' He grabbed the bat from where it was leaning. Marco got up. I — I should have stayed. I followed them out. I just followed them out.

Q: In the alley, what happened?

A: Trent walked right up to him. The guy was a little ways down the alley. Trent said 'Hey, brother, you got a minute?' or something like that. Trent can be — he can be charming when he wants to. The guy turned around. Trent was already close. Trent said 'where's the phone?' or 'gimme the phone' — something like that. The guy backed up. He said 'I don't want any trouble.' He said 'I'm leaving.' He had his hands up.

Q: What did Trent do?

A: Trent hit him. With the bat. Right away. The first one was — it was on the shoulder, I think? Maybe the side of the head. The guy went down to one knee. Then Trent hit him again. Marco went up and shoved him over. And then Trent — Trent hit him again, when he was on the ground.

Q: How many times did Trent strike?

A: Three times that I'm sure of. Maybe four. The last one was — it was when the guy was already down. (Subject pauses; appears emotional.) I yelled. I said 'Trent, enough. Trent, enough — that's enough.' I think I said it twice. Marco pulled Trent back. Trent was breathing hard.

Q: Did you touch the victim at any point?

A: No. I never touched him. I didn't get within five feet of him.

Q: The victim's fingernail scrapings include DNA matching Marco Pellegrino, not you. Is that consistent with what you saw?

A: Yes. The guy grabbed at Marco when Marco shoved him over. He grabbed at Marco's shirt. He scratched him on the arm, I think. I saw Marco's arm bleeding a little when we got in the Lyft.

Q: Did you leave any items in the alley that you know of?

A: My — my hood was down. I have a hoodie with that — you know — the kind that sheds. My hair — I shed a lot. I shed all over the place. So if there was anything from me, that's how.

Q: After the assault, what did you do?

A: We walked fast back through the alley to Bourbon. Trent had the bat in his hand. He held it against his leg. We turned and walked east. Marco called a Lyft from the corner. We went to Trent's. Trent — he took the bat and put it in his garage. He said he was going to clean it. The next day I heard from Marco that Trent had thrown it out, but in his neighbor's can, on the other side of his block. I think you found it.

Q: Did Trent or Marco tell you to lie if police came?

A: Trent told us — both of us — to say we left through the front and walked home. He said 'nobody saw nothing.' He kept saying that.

Q: Mr. McCall, did you ever participate in any other assault with Trent or Marco?

A: (Counsel intervenes; off-the-record conference; back on record.) I'm going to follow my lawyer's advice on that. Today is about this case.

Q: Understood. Last question for now: how do you feel about what happened to Damari Thornton?

A: (long pause) He was just doing his job. I didn't know that then. I know it now. I'm — I'm sorry. To his family. I'm so sorry.
