II. PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On October 4, 2025, at approximately 2:40 AM, PBDP officers responded to a homicide at the alley behind 712 Bourbon Street. Victim MARCUS WEBB, 34, was found deceased from blunt force trauma. Investigation revealed the following probable cause:

- (1) Bar surveillance footage shows DEREK FONTENOT, TRAVIS BELL, and RYAN McCALL engaged in a heated altercation with the victim inside The Rusty Anchor approximately 75 minutes before victim's death. Bartender witness states the altercation was physical in nature and that at least one suspect made threatening statements toward the victim.

(2) Bar surveillance footage shows all three suspects exiting through the rear staff door at 1:18 AM — three minutes after the victim exited through the same door at 1:15 AM.

(3) A witness (DARNELL WASHINGTON) observed three males matching the suspects' general descriptions entering the alley from the staff door area at approximately 1:20 AM.

(5) RYAN McCALL was located sitting in his vehicle at 534 Conti Street at 3:00 AM and claims to have been in his vehicle since 1 AM. Initial cell tower data analysis places his phone in the area immediately adjacent to the alley at 1:28 AM, contradicting his statement.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that any PBPD officer may search the described persons, vehicles, and residences and seize all items described herein. This warrant is valid for execution within ten (10) days of issuance. Louisiana Code of Criminal Procedure Article 162.
