Interview Time:	4:15 PM – 5:00 PM

I. PURPOSE OF SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

This supplemental report documents a second interview with witness Shannon O'Brien, who was previously interviewed on October 4, 2025 (see Document 11). O'Brien's initial statement was limited in scope and identified only one suspect — DEREK FONTENOT — as being involved in the altercation with the victim. This detective found the initial statement materially incomplete and requested a follow-up interview after reviewing the bar's indoor surveillance footage, which clearly shows three men involved in the altercation.

II. NEW INFORMATION PROVIDED

When confronted with the indoor surveillance footage in this second interview, Ms. O'Brien became visibly distressed. After a period of approximately five minutes during which she stated she 'didn't want to get anyone in trouble,' she provided the following additional information:

- ALL THREE MEN INVOLVED: O'Brien confirmed that DEREK FONTENOT, TRAVIS BELL, and RYAN McCALL were all involved in the altercation with Marcus Webb. In her initial statement, O'Brien stated only that 'Derek and Marcus got into it.' She now acknowledges all three men were 'in Marcus's face' during the altercation.
- NATURE OF ALTERCATION: O'Brien states the altercation began when Derek Fontenot became aware that his ex-girlfriend — who was at the bar earlier in the evening — had been speaking and dancing with Marcus Webb. O'Brien describes Derek as 'furious' and states that Travis Bell and Ryan McCall were 'hying Derek up.'
- KEY VERBAL THREAT — TRAVIS BELL: O'Brien states that TRAVIS BELL made the following statement during the altercation: 'We'll finish this outside.' O'Brien is certain of this statement. She states she heard it clearly because she was standing directly behind the bar, approximately six feet from the three men. She did not include this in her initial statement because she 'didn't think it meant anything' and 'didn't want trouble.'
- WHY SHE HELD BACK: O'Brien states that Derek Fontenot is a 'regular' at The Rusty Anchor and that she knows him 'somewhat.' She was worried about 'making enemies' in the neighborhood. She denies being asked or pressured by anyone to limit her statement.

III. SIGNIFICANCE

Travis Bell's statement — 'We'll finish this outside' — constitutes direct evidence of premeditation and a verbal threat made approximately 75 minutes before the victim's estimated time of death. The statement was made while all three suspects were confronting the victim inside the bar. The victim exited through the back door at 1:15 AM. All three suspects followed through the same door at 1:18 AM. This timeline, combined with Travis Bell's explicit verbal threat, substantially strengthens the inference that the subsequent assault was planned.

IV. WITNESS CREDIBILITY NOTE

O'Brien's credibility is bolstered by the indoor surveillance footage, which is consistent with her revised account. Her initial omission of Travis Bell and Ryan McCall, while troubling, appears motivated by social reluctance rather than malicious intent. This detective notes that O'Brien became more forthcoming once shown the footage, and her revised statement is internally consistent and corroborated by video evidence.
