

PELICAN BAY POLICE DEPARTMENT
HOMICIDE DIVISION — EIGHTH DISTRICT

715 South Broad Avenue, New Orleans, LA 70119
(504) 658-6080

WITNESS STATEMENT — FOLLOW-UP (SECOND INTERVIEW)

Case No.: PBPB-2025-088142 | Document No.: 12

Witness:	SHANNON O'BRIEN
Race/Sex/DOB:	F/W, June 14, 1999 (Age 26)
Statement Date:	October 8, 2025
Statement Time:	4:15 PM – 5:00 PM
Location:	PBPB Eighth District Station, Interview Room 1
Interviewing Detective:	Det. Renee Broussard, Badge #1887
Reason for Follow-Up:	Inconsistency with surveillance footage — initial statement incomplete
Case Number:	PBPB-2025-088142

[BEGIN TRANSCRIBED STATEMENT — SECOND INTERVIEW]

Detective Broussard: Shannon, thank you for coming in. I want to show you something. [Surveillance footage shown — indoor camera, approximately 12:05 AM, showing three men at the bar with the victim]

Shannon O'Brien: [long pause] I know. I know there were three of them. I'm sorry I didn't say that the first time. I was scared. These guys — Derek especially — they come in all the time. I have to work there.

Detective Broussard: Tell me about all three men.

Shannon O'Brien: It was Derek Fontenot, Travis Bell, and Ryan McCall. They all come in together sometimes. Travis and Ryan are friends of Derek's. That night, all three of them went up to this man — Marcus, I know his name now — and Derek was real angry. He was saying things like 'stay away from her' and calling Marcus names. Travis was right there backing Derek up. Ryan was kind of standing to the side but he wasn't leaving.

Detective Broussard: Did any of them make specific threats?

Shannon O'Brien: Travis. Travis Bell said — I remember this clearly because it made me nervous — he said, 'We'll finish this outside.' He was looking right at Marcus when he said it. Marcus didn't respond, he just kind of nodded and backed off. I thought it was just trash talk. I thought Marcus was going to leave and that would be the end of it.

Detective Broussard: Did Marcus leave after that?

Shannon O'Brien: Yeah. Maybe twenty, thirty minutes later. He went out the back. The staff door — people sometimes use it as a shortcut. I was surprised he knew it was there, but maybe he'd used it before or saw a sign.

Detective Broussard: And the three men — Derek, Travis, Ryan — what did they do?

Shannon O'Brien: [long pause] They left not long after. I thought they were just leaving for the night. I didn't — I didn't think they were going to actually do anything. I really didn't. When I found out in the morning what happened, I was sick. I felt sick.

Detective Broussard: Is there anything else you held back in your first statement?

Shannon O'Brien: No. That's everything. I swear. I just — I was scared. Derek knows people in the neighborhood. I didn't want trouble.

[END STATEMENT]

DETECTIVE NOTE: Witness's revised account is fully corroborated by indoor surveillance footage. Travis Bell's statement 'We'll finish this outside' constitutes a direct verbal threat and evidence of premeditation. Witness was credible in this second interview. Initial omission attributed to fear of retaliation from known bar regulars.

Witness Signature: _____ Shannon O'Brien

Detective Signature: _____ Renee Broussard #1887

Date: October 8, 2025